PRESENTATION OF CANDIDATES. Elecom Member Kyla Fray Degay presented the candidates for this year's election. There were 12 candidates for Board of Directors, 1 candidate for Election Committee and 2 candidates for Audit Committee. The candidates were given time to introduce themselves and their plans in case they were elected. These youths really are courageous and smart. They don't have any whims of shyness. They really speak whatever are in their minds. And they are ambitious. Their view of the future is incomprehensible. One might even think that their direction is impossible but the courage to face challenges head on makes one admire them. Each one made their own impression in their own way.
